- ◆ Please check the type of marriage license you would like to apply for:

- License and Certificate of Marriage (VS 117) — This is the standard type of marriage license. This type of marriage license requires the signature of at least one witness and one person solemnizing the marriage. With a Public Marriage License, you may be married anywhere in California in the presence of at least one witness, and your marriage must be solemnized by a person authorized to perform marriages in California as provided for in Family Code Sections 400-401.
- License and Certificate of Marriage for Denominations Not Having Clergy (VS 115) — This type of license is used for the recording of marriages for members of religious societies or denominations that do not have clergy for the purpose of solemnizing a marriage.
- License and Certificate of Declaration of Marriage (VS 116) — This type of license is used for the recording of a marriage that was licensed and occurred over one year ago; however, no official record exists.
- Confidential License and Certificate of Marriage (VS 123) — Confidential marriage licenses may only be issued to unmarried parties who are at least 18 years old and have been living together as spouses. Since the confidential marriage license requires the signature of a marriage officiant, they are not available to members of religious denominations not having clergy. Certified copies of the marriage license and certificate may only be issued to the couple. With a Confidential Marriage License, you must be married in the same county in which your marriage license was issued. The couple MUST reside at the same address. No witnesses are necessary for the marriage ceremony. The signatures of the parties in fields 23 and 24 affirm that they meet the requirements to receive a confidential marriage license.
